

The award winning GAMEKIDS.COM is now back on Oahu. The local educational TV show ran several seasons on Oceanic Cable 16. Its not-for-profit educational division is hosting their PLAYDANCE Performing Arts Day Camp in Ewa during the Spring intercession break, March 19-23, 2018 from 8:30AM - 12Noon, Monday-Friday, on the grounds of both Ewa Elementary School and Ewa Community Church.

PLAYDANCE is a unique performing arts program geared for the amateur and professional in which in one week the cast puts on an entire musical play. GAMEKIDS has hosted camps in California and Hawaii on the islands of Maui, Kauai, and Oahu for the past 25 years.

Join GAMEKIDS in the delightful story, "The Wizard of Oz" in song, dance, and acting. It is being directed by Kahu Rennie Mau, executive producer/director of GAMEKIDS who has produced and published hundreds of children's productions and media projects.

The "Wizard of OZ" is open to children in grades 2-6. No experience is required, however, this is a performing arts camp and not a babysitting program. The children will be expected to attend and rehearse daily and to perform in the finale on Friday, March 23rd at 7PM. Open to the public and free.

Older teens and adults interested in volunteer staffing may contact Kahu Mau at 808-280-9591 or email: kahumau@gmail.com. A safety background check is required.

Tuition is $60 first child, $40 second child from the immediate family. A limited amount of scholarships are available. Limited enrollment. Deadline March 15, 2018.

For more information, phone 808-280-9591 or visit www.gamekids.com.
